Citizens Participation: NONE

Old Business:

- A. Report from Code enforcement: Audit is going well. Working on changes in Ordinance's, some need to be updated, some need verbiage changed bring everything up to date.
- B. Need to work on getting business not doing business to register or will possibly start receiving fines. We need more business that are doing business in the commercial area. Need to make sure vacant commercial buildings have insurance coverage.
- C. Updated on Training held October 20, 2022. Report is they learned a lot and one of the things stressed is to use the terms progress in lieu of the term grow. Cache needs to be progressive if we are going to keep our young people here.
- D. Appears to be a parking issue at Malloy Park. Paul is going to pass on to CPWA

New Business:

- A. Goals for the coming year: Possibly have training opportunities twice yearly. Have people from the city come down and speak to us about being progressive in towns of 5,000 population or less.
- B. Work on updating Code
- C. Work with Chamber on creating a Welcome Packet for people moving to Cache or visiting Cache. Things to do in and around Cache. John R mentioned that it might be possible for business to buy ads for the welcome packet to off set the cost of the welcome packet.
